AMUSEMENTS NEXT WEEK.

Albaugh's-"Katti." Miss Marietta Nash, the popular and pretty little soubrette, well-known in Hoyt's plays in "Katti," a musical farce-comedy in three acts, the first in London, the last two at Mar-gatte, the English seaside resort. The compli-cation consists in the blunder of a stupid Ger-man servant girl Katti, who is made to appear to have f-lien heir to a large fortune. There is plenty of room for fun, and for music and cancing, and every coign of vantage is covered. There will be a big turnout Monday night.

The National-Mr. and Mrs. Florence, Next week at the National we are to have Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence in a round of genuine comedies, and it goes without saying that those who attend their performances will find abundant pleasure. "The MightyDollar" will be given dant pleasure. "The Mights Dollar" will be given Monday: "Our Governor!" Tuesday; on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings and Saturday matinee, "Heart of Hearts." Saturday night, "Dombey & Son," All of these plays excepting "Heart of Hearts" are well known here. "Heart of Hearts," however, will be produced for the first time here after a great success in New York and other cities. It is pure and wholesome comedy and affords Mr. and Mrs. Florence ample opportunity for the development and application of their best powers.

Harris' Blicon-Australian Novelty Co.

Harris' Bijou--Australian Novelty Co. Austin's Australian Novelty Company, which made such a bit at Harris' Bijou last year, comes again next week, and in a greatly im proved condition. Among the attractions are En-clish and McArthur, Rosina, male impersonator, omnors and Colbus, Alex, Darus, Sheehan and Coyne, Fred Matthews, and Weber and Fleids. The Austin sisters' aerial performance is the event of the evening. Kernan's-The Night Owls.

The Night Owls Burlesque Company is the attraction at Kernan's next week. The Seven Australian Beauties, the finest formed women in the world; the hand-somest grouping ever seen in America, by nine living models; M'ile Emily, who in long skrits turns double somersantis from the shoulders of the brothers Eddy; the imperial court reception arranged at a cost of $3.000 and a sensational extravaganza, "Drummers in Paradise" are amount the exciting and interesting features of the entertainment.

It Made a "Pow'ful" Noise.

the reservoir. His boss told him it was in the way, and be undertook to burn it up and get rid of it. It broke windows twenty yards distant, but Henry said it didn't bother him much, except that it "did make a pow'ful noise." He was arrested for violating the police regulations with reference to explosions, but Judge Miller to-day said that the real responsibility was with the man who prompted him to the attempt. Henry was dismissed.
